

BUSINESS OF COUNTY COURT

Library Speech-Highway Judge W. F. Sadler, of Cumberland County, Presides at a Session of Adams County Court Held on Monday.

James W. F. Sadler, of Cumberland County, presided at a session of Court on Monday when the following business was transacted:

The accounts so advertised were confirmed with an additional credit of $46 in settlement of the claim of Mrs. J. M. Sadler, widow of the late William Sadler, P. F., executor of the will of Susan D. Worth, deceased, late of Fairfield.

Orders of sale in the estate of H. P. Stinson, deceased, late of H. P., to the heirs of said estate, to be made and executed March 20 next, except on those dates they filed prior thereto.

On the 12th inst. the assets of Thomas A. Ferguson, deceased, late of Cumberland township, by James H. Brown, executor, were sold to the heirs of said estate.

Orders of sale in the estate of Ellen Brown, deceased, late of Strath Township, by H. V. Brown and H. C. G.

Return of sale in the estate of Mary Richmond, deceased, late of Mt. Pleasant, S. C., to the heirs at law.

Appointment of Donald F. McPherson, guardian for Wm. C. Briscoe, ward, of Baltimore, above.

Petition of Elias R. Kitchner, at heirs at law of Elias Crawford, and G. Crawford and Margaret D. Crawford, deceased, for order of sale for partition of land therein described.

All the cases on the argument list for March 4 were continued.

BOUQUIN PARTY

THE JOYOUSLY festive party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daniel, Woodville, Saturday evening in honor of their daughter Pearl. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shivers, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stover, Misses Mary Taylor, Corilla

Flannia Black, Edna Showers, Wilda Warren, Stella Orrin, Nettie Showers, Stella Myers, Eva Showers, Irene Black, Ruth Gardner, Merion Black, Mona Trimm, Lovise Myers; Miss Samuels Showers Ellsworth Wolf, Edgar Grues, Charlie Warren, Emmett Warren, Charlie Showers, Eugene Miller, Charles Teohry, Earl Heller, Thomas Myers, Ray Showers, Gay Weak, Edward Black, William Noel, Robert McCaslin, Edgar Baldwin, Raymond Warren, Myrtle Orr, Lawrence Showers, Orlo Myers, Earl

The people of Wagesboro were startled early Tuesday morning when the five alarm sounded and it was learned there was a fire at the Galew Neoseofentring Company's shops. Everybody jumped to the hasty conclusion that friends of the firefighters had caused the blaze. A pile of oak lumber in the yard was ashine and was surely set afire by somebody but as workingmen's homes and homes are around and even conceivable that the workmen would be responsible for such a gross error. The fact that the fault came from the scene of the blame, The Gould Company are department teachers, and the fault is not theirs. When the town companies arrived, the loss was about $200.

WILL ASK PARDON

One first ask for some Lemmie Githers, a member of the 10th, from the gallows on March 26, is to be made at the March session of the Board of Pardon. Application was made for a pardon for the same reason for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

Similar applications were made by James H. Chamberlain, for William Reed who is sentenced to be hanged this month for the murder of

IN BUSINESS 30 YEARS

After over 30 years of active and honest energy in the grocery business in Littlestown, Ala. Smasher retired from the business Friday, March 1, having sold his interest to Fresh B. Stivaly. Mr. Smasher, however, will continue in his real estate and insurance business and also in the sale of wall paper.

Journal of Interpersonal Violence

